

From 3-6 to Glory – 2024 Dodge Dynasty Champion Jeremiah Yugulis

Jeremiah Yugulis (above) celebrating his championship with an interpretive breakdance routine

Congratulations to Jeremiah Yugulis for winning his second Dodge Dynasty title! After starting 3-6 he went 4-1 down the stretch and was the final team to punch a playoff ticket, and ultimately edged past runner-up Dave Nickelsen 123.2-115.2 in a very high scoring finals. Oddly enough he becomes the first 6-seed ever to win the trophy, although 5-seeds have won the most (six).

The streak of highest scoring teams (Twitch this year) not winning since 2013 extends another year, as does another bizarre streak. The overall 1-seed (me this year) has not even reached the finals since 2020. 10-4 Toot in 2021, 11-3 Dave in 2022, record-setting 13-1 Kerkel in 2023, and 11-3 Hawke in 2024 all lost in the semis immediately after their bye.

I say it every single year - JUST. MAKE. THE. PLAYOFFS. Chaos reigns supreme.

Other noteworthy notes worth noting: Twitch's 14-week point total is now the 2nd highest ever. 1. 2022 Dave (1552.9), 2. 2024 Twitch (1542.9), 3. 2023 Kerkel (1520.8), and 4. 2021 Toot (1517.1). His 110.2 ppg also ranks 3rd behind my 2018 112.8 ppg and 2022 Dave's 110.9 ppg

Twitch and Toot both re-entered the playoff field after a brief hiatus last season, while Kerkel and Jay both just missed. Meanwhile playoff-less streaks continue for both Steve Miller (3 years) and Jason Bratten (4 years – a new record for people not named Matt Robson). Here's hoping for a return to the postseason next year for you both. The top two picks in every round should certainly help. Special thanks to Dave and Jeremiah for setting complete finals lineups this year!

This was a blast. I really appreciate you all. Have a terrific 2025!
